PRIME MINISTER

WORLD CLIMATE CONFERENCE, 6 NOVEMBER

CAS 6 PM 6.6.90 PT16

I attach the original note about this, which you approved at the time.

You said last week that you now preferred to cancel your attendance at the World Climate Conference, to leave more time to prepare for the State Opening. I will put that in hand tomorrow.

That said, it is a pity. You are the only Minister or Prime Minister of any country invited to address the World Climate Conference: and I think you would get more publicity for your speech than for opening in the Debate on the Address. I think we could get the speech written well in advance. But I quite understand that you will not want to feel hassled and under pressure when the time comes over the Debate on the Address.

Will have word tomorrow
